

RETHINKING URBAN POVERTY FOR THE 21ST CENTURY: INSTITUTIONAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL PERSPECTIVES MARCH 10 AND 11, 2011

WHERE

The University of Chicago
Ida Noyes Hall
1212 East 59 Street
Chicago, Illinois

WHAT

This two-day conference will feature panels on issues at the forefront of urban research, including sessions on housing, health, criminal justice, children and education, and immigration.

REGISTRATION

The event is free and open to the public, but preregistration is required, as spaces are limited. Register online at urbanforums.uchicago.edu by February 28, 2011.

QUESTIONS Individuals with questions about the event, or who need accommodations in order to participate fully, may contact Caroline Ouwerkerk, project manager, the University of Chicago Urban Network at 773.702.5116 or cro@uchicago.edu.

This event is made possible with the generous support of the Division of Social Sciences, NORC, and the Office of the Vice President for Strategic Initiatives.

SPEAKERS

Scott Allard

School of Social Service Administration,
The University of Chicago

Xavier Briggs

White House Office of Management and Budget

Robert Chaskin

School of Social Service Administration,
The University of Chicago

Héctor Cordero-Guzmán

Baruch College,
City University of New York

Stefanie DeLuca

Johns Hopkins University

Bruce Fuller

University of California-Berkeley

Joseph Galaskiewicz

University of Arizona

David Harding

University of Michigan

Stacy Lindau

The University of Chicago Medical Center

Jens Ludwig

School of Social Service Administration,
The University of Chicago

Nicole Marwell

Baruch College

Michael McQuarrie

University of California-Davis

David Meltzer

Harris School of Public Policy Studies,
The University of Chicago

Jeffrey Morenoff

University of Michigan

Harold Pollack

School of Social Service Administration,
The University of Chicago

Mario Small

Department of Sociology,
The University of Chicago

Celeste Watkins-Hayes

Northwestern University

Bruce Western

Harvard University

Bessie Wilkerson

Harlem Children's Zone

Min Zhou

University of California-Los Angeles

